Bikkini Island - Architectural Plan I

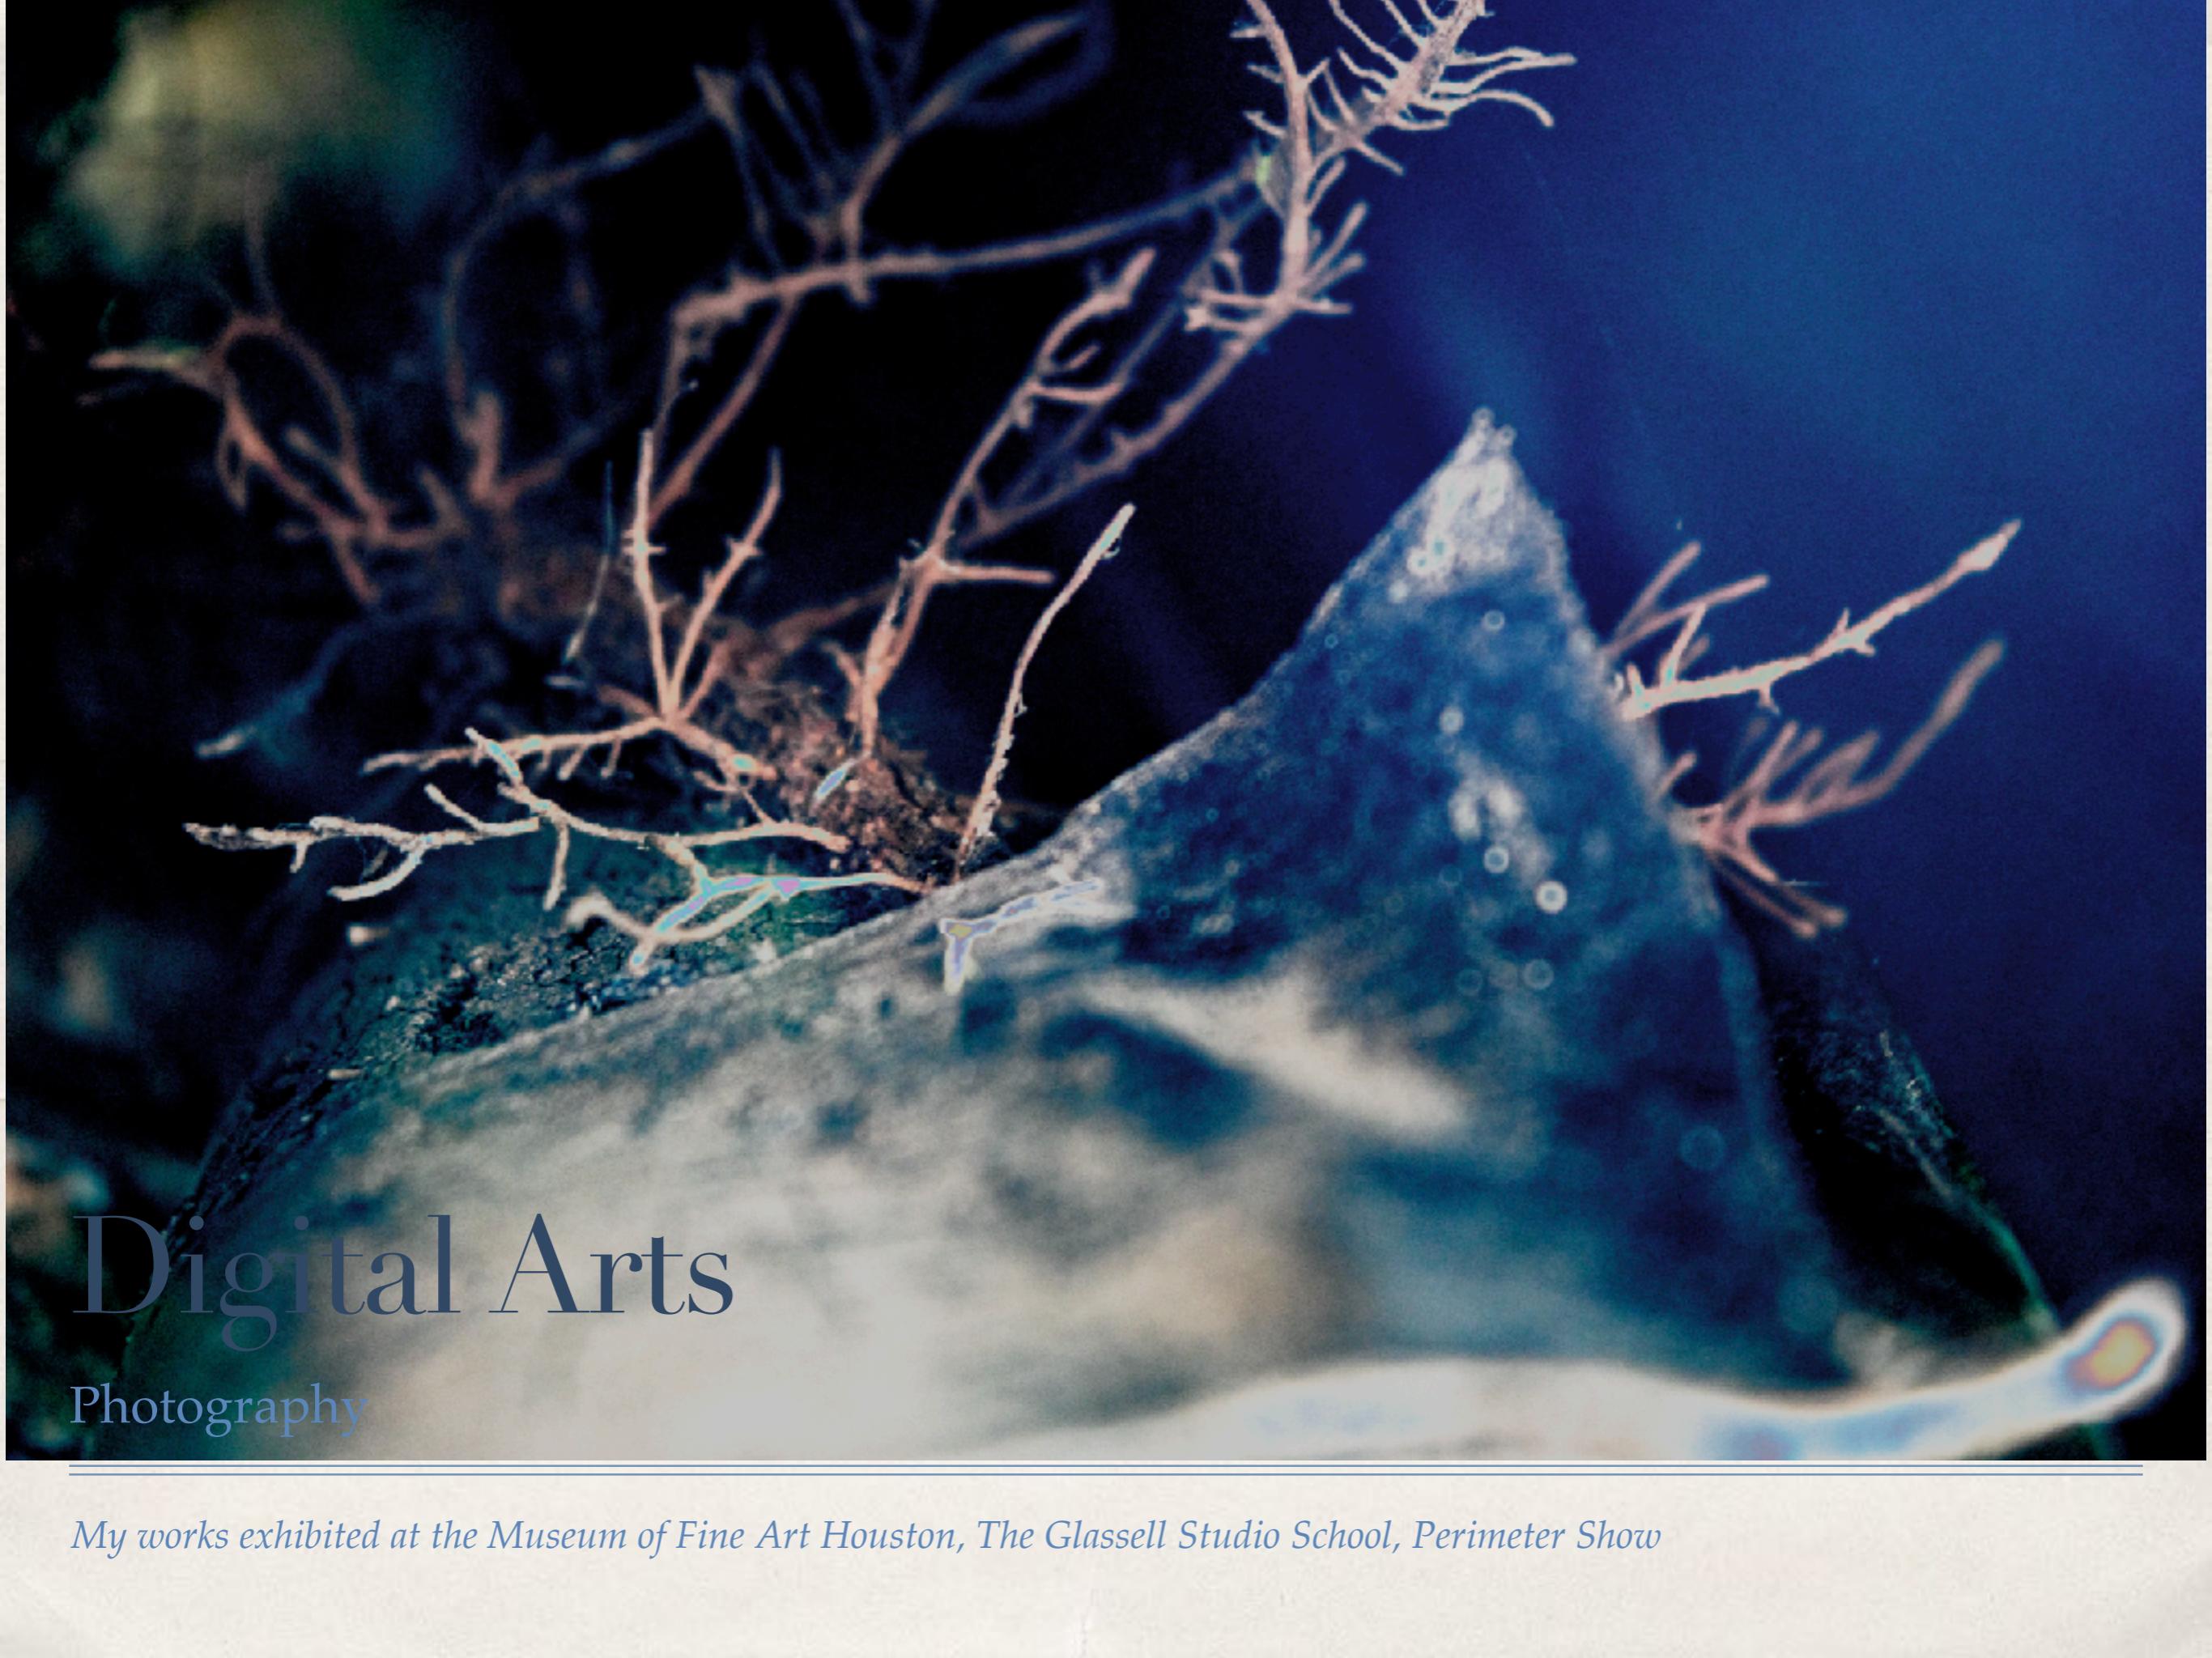

Bikkini Island - Architectural Plan II

When I first saw the area, it was a parking lot on Bosphorus Strait and I turned the parking lot to a tropic island and named it as Bikkini Island. I influenced by the sad story of the Bikini Atoll, a nuclear test area in Pacific. It was kind of a poetic justification...

Bikkini Island, Istanbul

Parking lot turned a Tropic Beach on Bosphorus Strait. To create a beach, we brought 100 truck loads of Mediterranean sand dumped in to see.

Digital Arts

Photography

My works exhibited at the Museum of Fine Art Houston, The Glassell Studio School, Perimeter Show

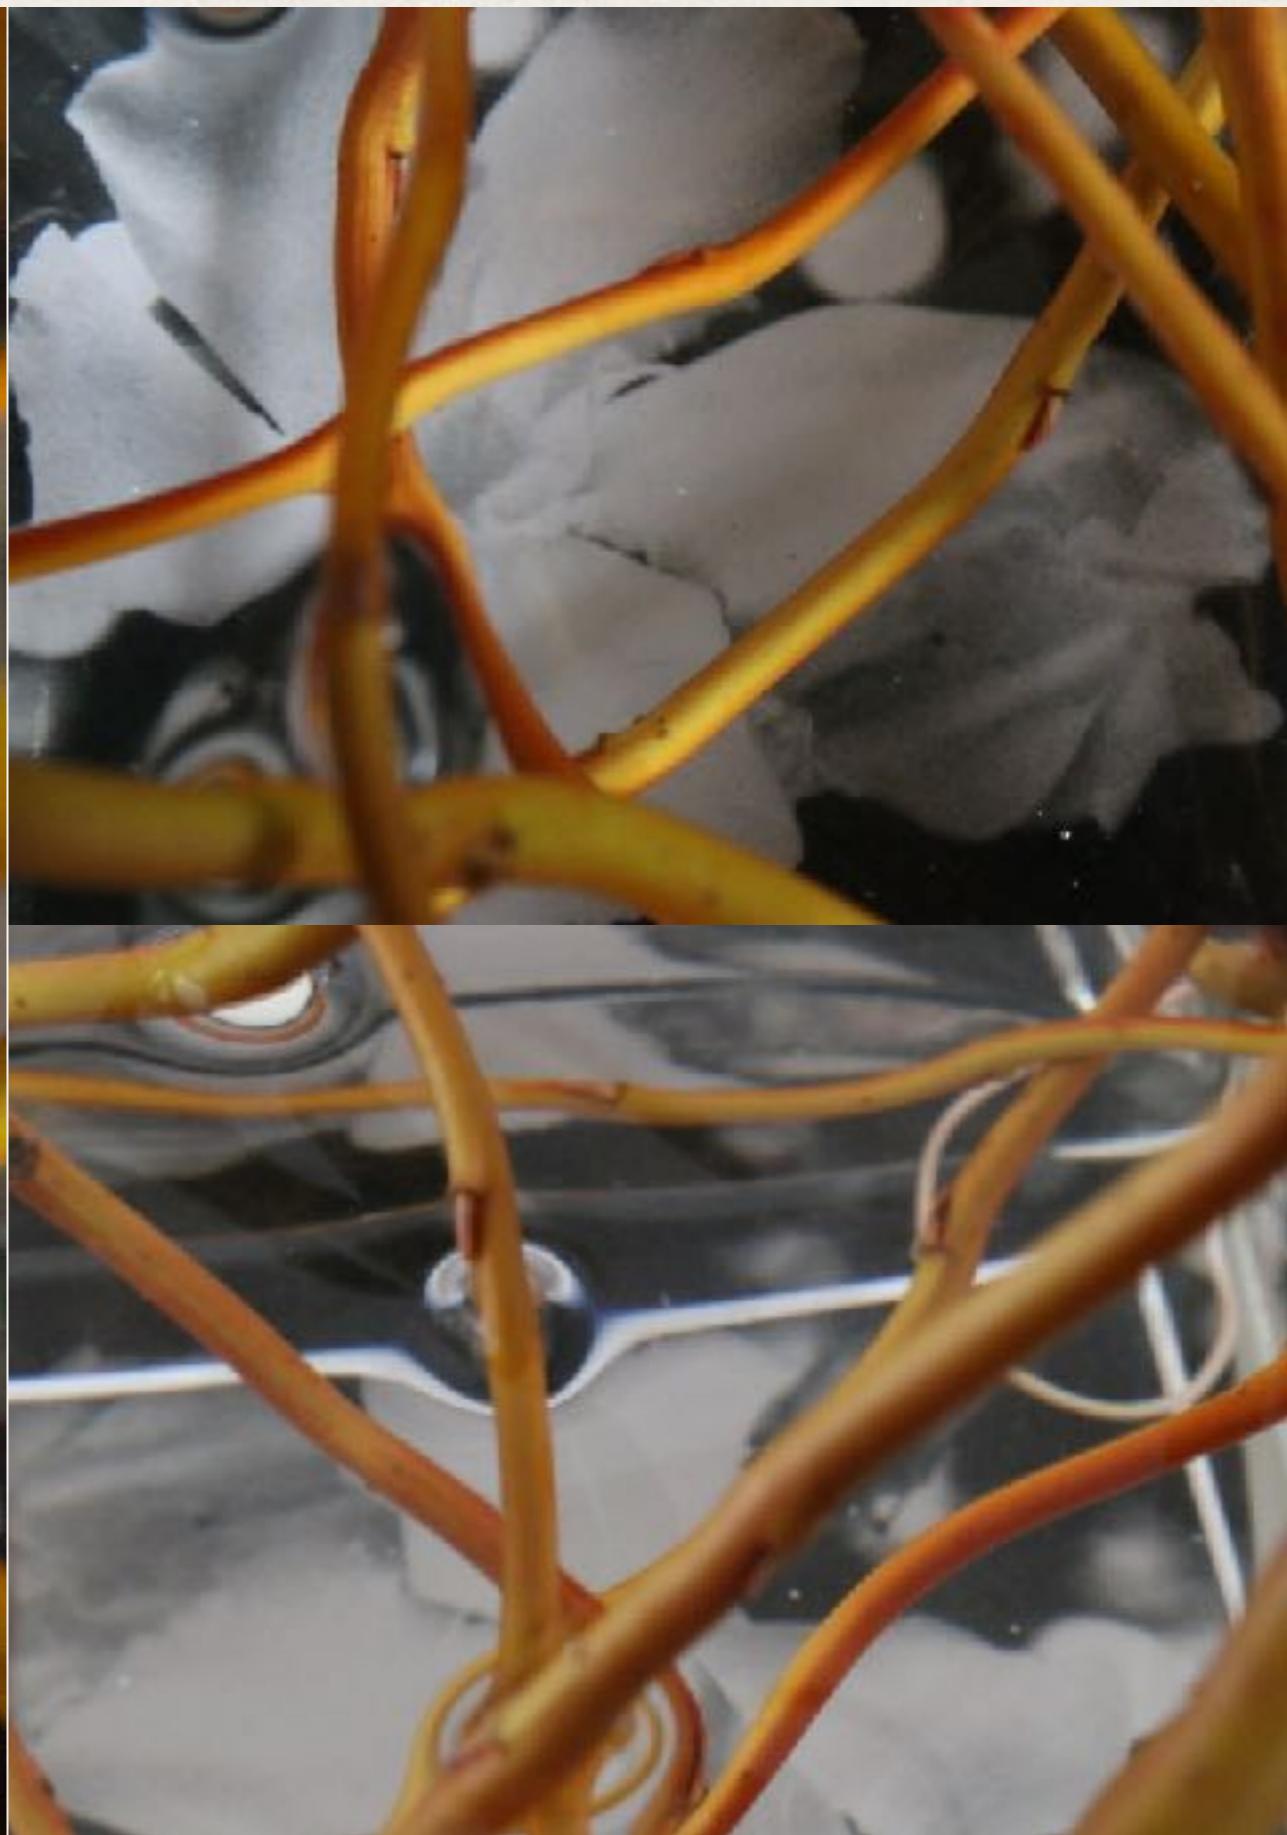

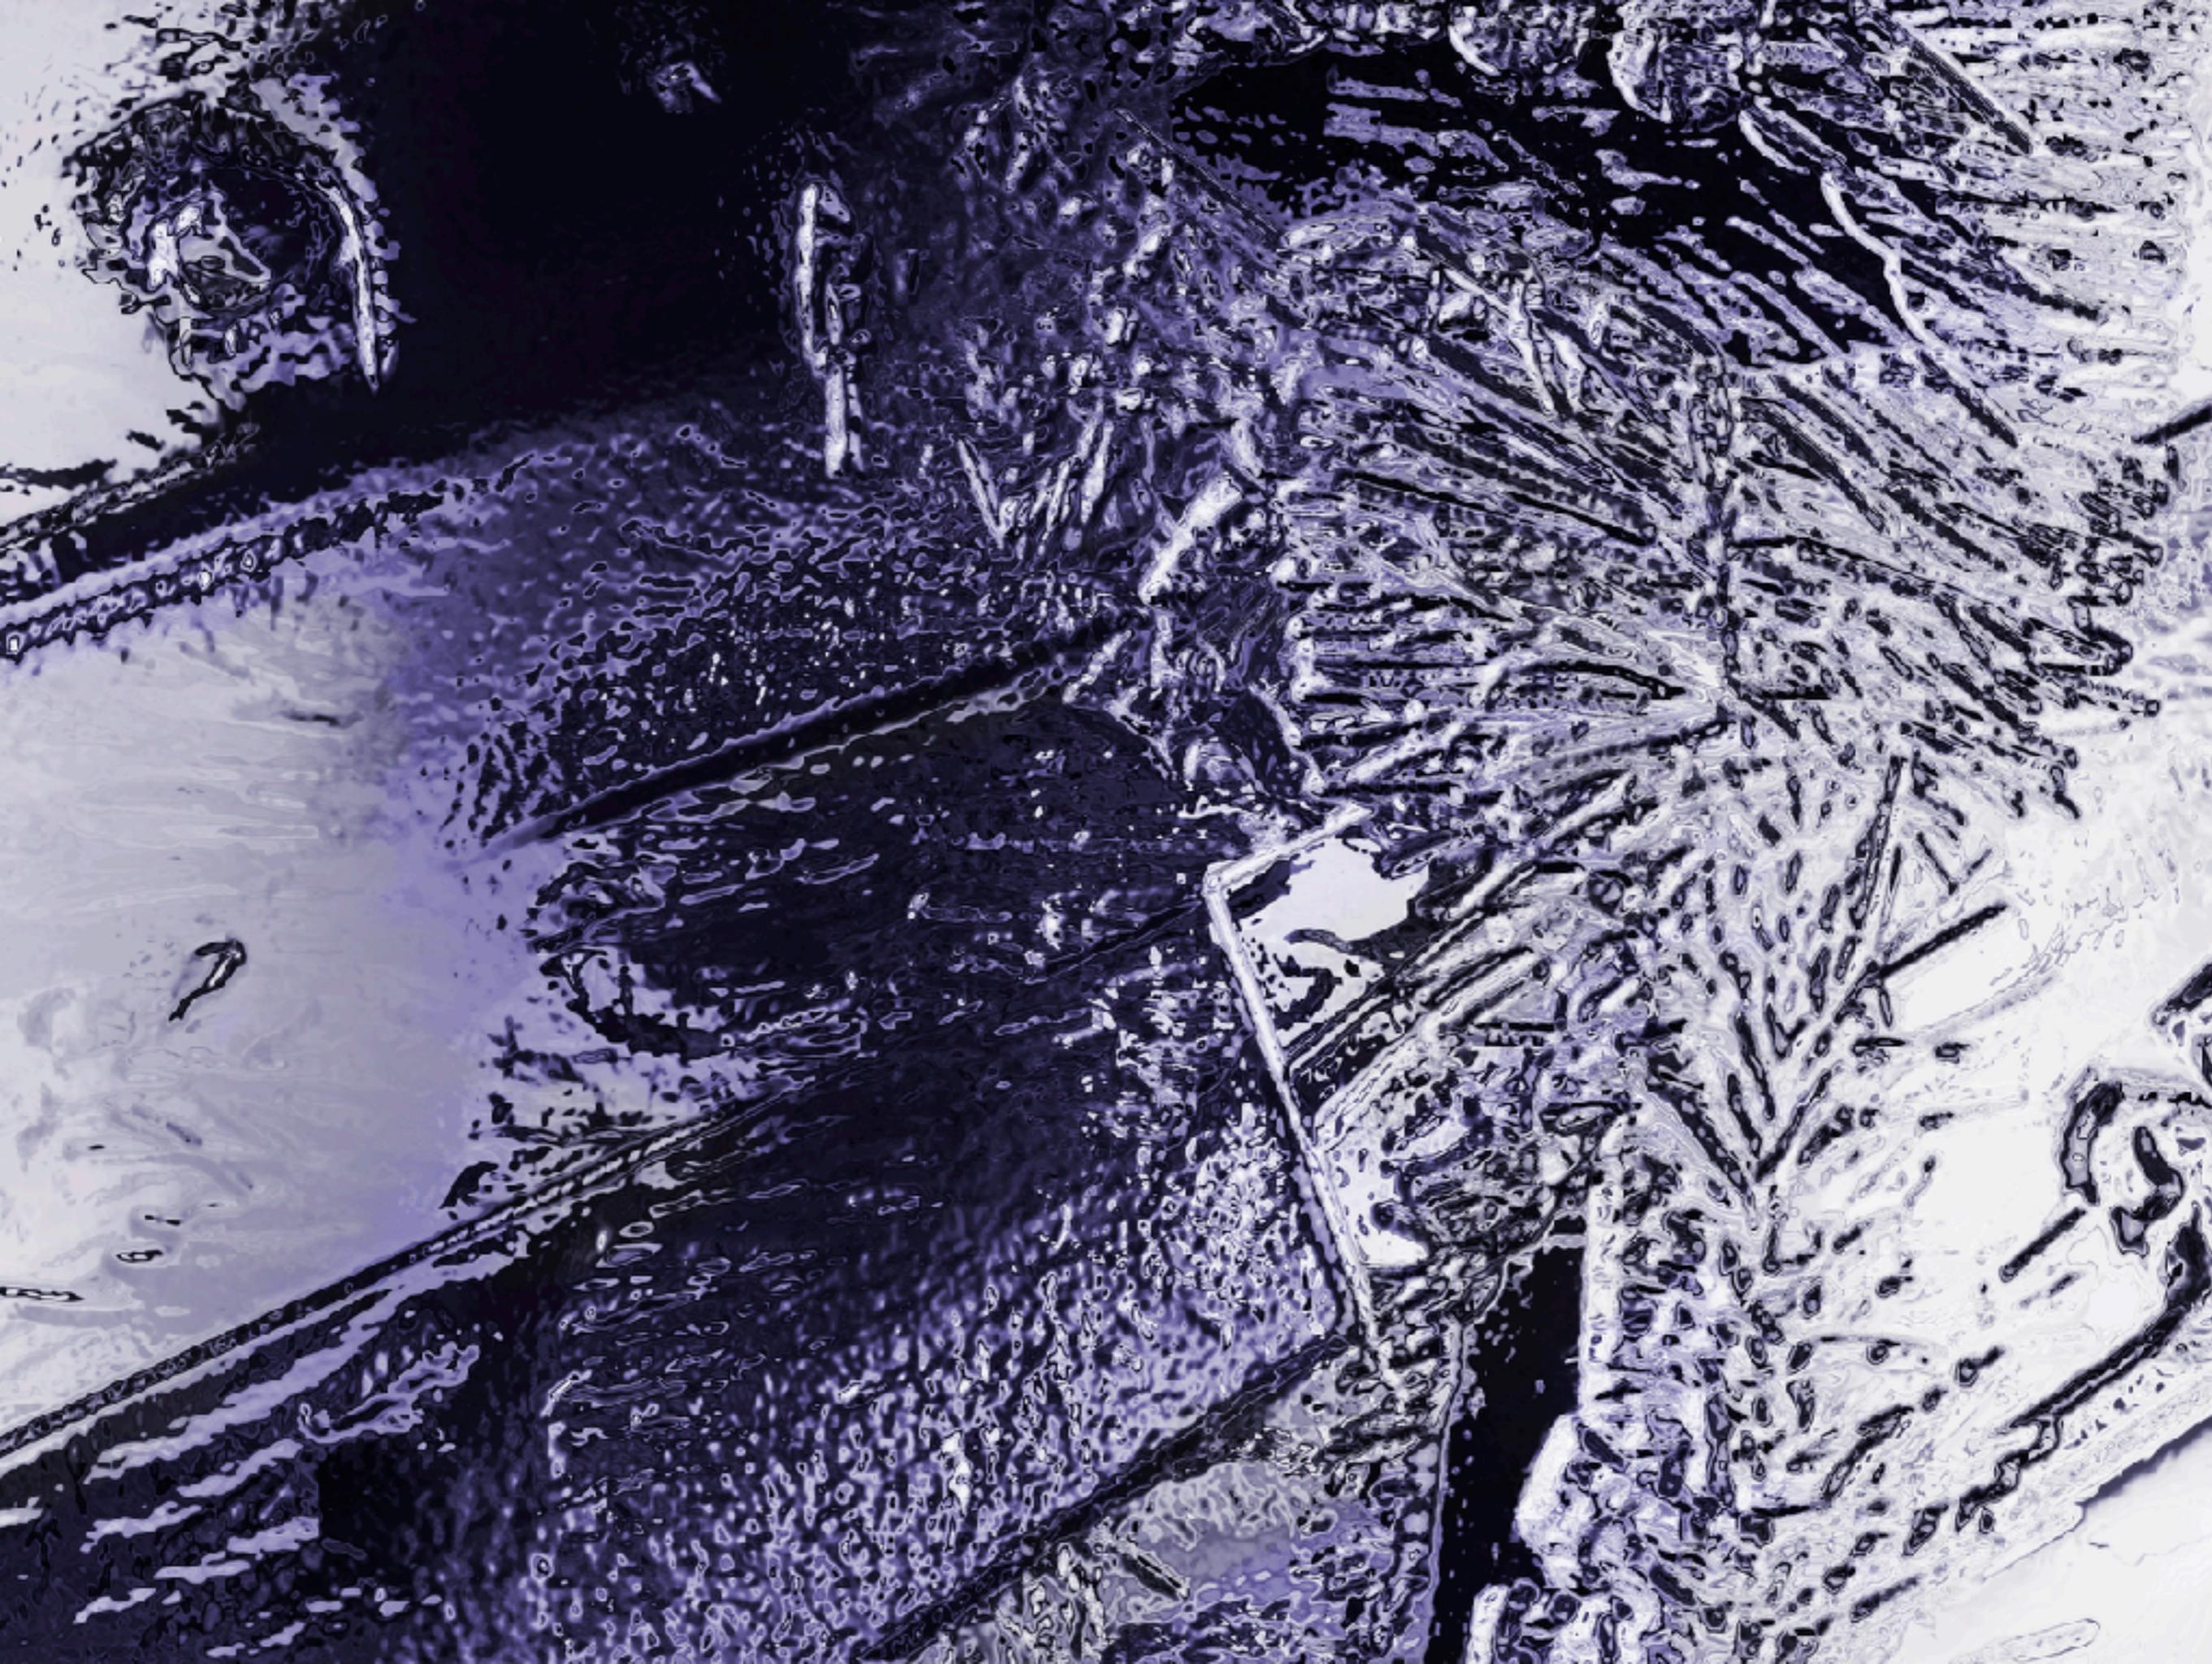

Mixed Media Photography
